The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 22. to Tuesday December 25. 1739.

Petersbourg, November 24.

FOUR of the Chiefs of the Family of Dolgorucky have lately been executed at Novogrod. It is ſaid they were charged with having forged a Teſtament in the Name of the Czar Peter the Second, and with other Crimes of a freſher Date. The Troops are daily drawing from the Ukraine towards this Place; ſo that now there are about 30 or 40000 good Troops in the Neighbourhood. We have a Report here, that the famous Thamas Kouly Chan was lately killed in an Engagement with an Indian Nation called Bajaps, a bold and reſolute People, inhabiting the Mountains between Indoſtan and Perſia.

Stockholm, Dec. 7. M. Palmſtierna is appointed to ſucceed M. Skutenhielm as Miniſter from this Court to that of Denmark.

Vienna, Dec. 12, N. S. The Bavarian Court has ſet up a Quarantine upon the Frontiers of Auſtria, by which it is ordered, that every Perſon coming from Vienna, who ſhall not have a proper Certificate of his having been Forty Days in that Town, ſhall, notwithſtanding his Hungarian and other Quarantines, perform Forty Days Quarantine upon the Frontiers of Bavaria.

Hambourg, Dec. 15, N. S. Baron Dehn, whom the King of Denmark has appointed his Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Spain, is ſoon expected here in his Way to Paris.

Vienna, Dec. 16, N. S. It is generally thought at Court, that nothing will be finally reſolved upon relating to the Imperial Military Eſtabliſhments, till the Arrival after Chriſtmas of Prince Hildburgſhauſen, who, for his Conduct in the laſt Campaign, is held in great Eſteem as a General, by the Emperor.

Dreſden, Dec. 27, N. S. Three Columns of the Ruſſian Troops, that paſſed through Poland, are now ſuppoſed to be in their own Territories, as it is, that the fourth and laſt will ſoon overtake them. Moſt of the Artillery is to be left in Okop, and St. Trinity, two Forts belonging to the Republick, till the Roads are better, and more Horſes can be had. It is reported here, that they had taken at Choczim and in Moldavia 800 Braſs Cannon, moſt of them from 24 to 30 Pounders, beſides ſome Iron Pieces.

Hague, Jan. 1, N. S. The Poſt from Frieſland that came in to Day, has brought us the agreeable News of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Orange's continuing to recover her Health and Strength as faſt as can be expected.
